

Ocean Symphony (soft rock)(Ocean Literacy and VSM)

(Verse 1)	In the web of life, we weave so tight, A tapestry of blue, under the sky's light. Ocean's heart, it beats for you and me, In its depths, our future we can see.
(Chorus)	Ocean Literacy, we must embrace, Understand the sea, our saving grace. Seven truths, forty-four dreams, In the ocean's tale, we're all the themes
(Verse 2)	From the shores to the deepest blue, Our impact felt, the ocean knew. Human hands have shaped its fate, But in its waves, hope can resonate
(Chorus)	Ocean Literacy, we must embrace, Understand the sea, our saving grace. Seven truths, forty-four dreams, In the ocean's tale, we're all the themes
(Bridge)	Viable Systems, guiding light, In the ocean's dance, we find our might. From global reach to personal call, Recursiveness, autonomy, we stand tall
(Verse 3)	Programs mapped, gaps to mend, With each effort, new currents send. Governance reimagined, bold and new, For the ocean's voice, we must pursue
(Chorus)	Ocean Literacy, we must embrace, Understand the sea, our saving grace. Seven truths, forty-four dreams, In the ocean's tale, we're all the themes
(Outro)	In the ocean's song, our hearts align, With stewardship, our spirits shine. For the ocean's legacy, we stand, Hand in hand, with sea and sand

Off to the Channel We Go (sea shanty)

Chorus:	Off to the Channel we go, we go, Casting our nets in the waters below, With wind in our sails and hearts full of cheer, The fish will be jumping when morning is here!
Verse 1:	We leave from the harbor, the sun's shining bright, The gulls call above as we set out in flight, With our little boat rocking, we sail out to sea, What treasures await us? Oh, soon we shall see!
Chorus:	Off to the Channel we go, we go, Casting our nets in the waters below, With wind in our sails and hearts full of cheer, The fish will be jumping when morning is here!
Verse 2:	The waves dance around us, so salty and cool, We cast out our lines, oh, the sea is our school, The fishies are waiting, they're silver and bright, We'll bring home our catch by the end of the night!
Chorus:	Off to the Channel we go, we go, Casting our nets in the waters below, With wind in our sails and hearts full of cheer, The fish will be jumping when morning is here!
Verse 3:	With laughter and stories, the time passes fast, Our nets fill with fish, what a catch we've amassed! Back home to the harbor, the sun's sinking low, But the joy of the ocean will stay as we grow.
Chorus:	Off to the Channel we go, we go, Casting our nets in the waters below, With wind in our sails and hearts full of cheer, The fish will be jumping when morning is here!
